“ The Krause's were our neighbors when we were growing up. Their Dad worked with our Dad at the Fire Department. I always remember their mother in the kitchen with a smile on her face, humming a little tune and making bread. Their dad was a quiet man but he was very kind to all the neighborhood kids. We would all get so excited when their cockateal would lay eggs. They had an egg incubator and us kids would be grouped around it in fascination. When we had the flood of '73, our family sought refuge at their house. Our house was filling up with water fast and Dad took us next door to their house since they had a 2-story. My family is very sorry for the loss of your dear mother.
