“ I remember Linda being so kind to me when I visited their house in Enid in the mid 70's. She was married to my dad at the time and had blessed me with my brother Lance and my sister Denise. I was going through my vegetarian phase at the time, and I remember her being so accomodating, doing her best to make sure that they had something for me to eat...a funny thing to remember, but she really tried to make me feel welcome and comfortable. We did not see one another often over the years, but she was always sweet and kind to me. She will be greatly missed.

“ Here are some pictures that I found from some of our family reunions. I thought a lot of Linda as I was growing up. We had the same thoughts about those reunions that we went to just because we loved our dads! Lance, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers!
