

Loberta May Martin

November 21, 1923 - November 9, 2012

A funeral service for Loberta Martin, of Wakita, will be Monday, November 12, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. in the Anderson-Burriss Chapel with Reverend Jeff Jackson officiating. Burial will follow in the Fairview McKeeman Cemetery, Medford, under the direction of Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home, Enid. Loberta was born on November 21, 1923 in Amorita, Oklahoma to Burton and Ethel Freeman and died on November 9, 2012 in Bethany, Oklahoma. Loberta received her Bachelor's Degree in Education and her Master's as a Reading Specialist. She taught second grade at Putnam City Schools and first grade at Wakita Schools. In addition to teaching Loberta was the wife of a farmer and educator, mother of five children, and grandmother. She loved cooking, reading, sewing, and spending time with family. Loberta was preceded in death by her husbands, Elmer McKeeman and Lloyd Martin; a son, Harold McKeeman; three sisters and two brothers. She is survived by her children, Lea Mae Rankin of St. Cloud, MN, Leland McKeeman of Austin, TX, Linda Hall of Conroe, TX, and Tamie Brickmann of Yukon, OK; twelve grandchildren, and eleven great grandchildren. Memorials may be made to NWOSU Education Scholarship.