Their first date was going to a basketball game that neither of them were really interested in, but it was a great way to spend some time together.

Earl and Marie married August 23, 1947. They were blessed with two daughters, Linda and Jane. They raised their family in The Wesleyan Methodist Church.

In her early married years, Marie wrote for the social column and obituaries for the Enid Publishing Co. Marie later became a dedicated homemaker and accomplished seamstress. Marie considered it an honor to work for the election board for many years.

Earl and Marie were married 61 years before Earl's passing in 2009.
