

Mary LaVonne Hurley

October 7, 1945 - June 30, 2013

Funeral service for Mary Hurley, 67, of Enid, will be 1:00 PM, Wednesday, July 3, 2013, at Evangel Assembly of God Church, with Rev. Lester Lowry officiating. Burial will follow in Hawley Cemetery. Visitation with the family will be Tuesday from 5:30 to 6:30 at Anderson-Burris Funeral Home. Mary was born to Clarence and Nora (Williams) Webb on October 7, 1945 in Carnegie, and passed away on Sunday, June 30, in Enid. Mary grew up in and attended school in Pond Creek. On January 15, 1965 she married Rex Hurley at the Eagle Grove Assembly of God Church north of Nash. She worked for Vance Air Force Base as a custodian, Elder Care, and also at a dry cleaners, and did alterations. Mary was a member of Evangel Assembly of God Church, was a Sunday School Teacher, and a Straight Arrow Royal Ranger Commander. She is survived by her husband Rex of the home; three brothers C.L. Webb, Henry Webb, both of Enid, and John Webb of Medford; one sister Pauline Dillon of Pond Creek, and several nieces, nephews, and friends. Mary was preceded in death by her parents, one brother, and a baby sister. Memorials may be made to Evangel Assembly of God Church, 2717 West Broadway, Enid.
