Scott was born on November 24, 1978 in Webster, Texas to Edward Michael and Nina Jean (Kinhead) Gehring and passed away on November 24, 2021 in Lawton, Oklahoma.

He grew up in Seabrook, Texas and in 1993 during his teenage years moved to Enid. He was a cook for many restaurants in Enid, and later he began working in construction and at Mead Lumber Yard in Ada, Oklahoma. Scott went to Rose State College and was working on his final degree at Rio Salado College in Psychology, specializing in drug addiction and substance abuse. “ He was a silly guy ❤️ Always positive and making people laugh. I haven't seen Scotty in years but am glad to hear that he had a relationship with Christ. I have a few memories of Scott. He was ornery but we loved him. Rest easy and I will see you when I get there.
