

Norma Replogle

January 10, 1935 - May 12, 2025

Celebration of Life for Norma Replogle, 90, will be Monday, May 19, 2025, at 10 a.m. at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel with Pastors Dan Barrick and Jarrod Cloud officiating. Burial will immediately follow in Pleasant View Cemetery, Jet.

Norma Lea was born in a boxcar in Renfrow on January 10, 1935, to Floyd and Josephine (Manos) Trammell. She was peacefully carried into heaven the early morning of May 12, 2025.

Norma attended school in Gore, Sand Creek, Wakita, and Cherokee and graduated with the Enid High School class of 1953. Her junior year, on Aug. 30, 1952, in Guymon, she wed Keith Replogle and they remained united in marriage until his death in January 2000.

Following her high school graduation, the couple moved to Kansas for his job, and had one daughter, Sheryl, during this time. They returned to Oklahoma briefly in 1962 and had one son, Steven, before relocating to Texas for nearly a decade.

The Replogle family settled north of Enid in 1975 on an acreage that allowed them to raise American quarter and paint horses. Keith was a bricklayer while Norma was housewife until 1989, when she began working as a receptionist for Midwest Oil. She retired in 1997 and began volunteering at Highland Park Manor.

Norma moved into Enid in 2005. She was of the Pentecostal faith and faithfully attended Enid First Assembly of God for over 40 years.

To her friends and family, Norma was a humble, godly woman known for her servant's heart. She might have been small, but she was mighty! A prayer warrior, Norma loved her Lord and regularly lifted her loved ones to Him. She never missed an opportunity to visit, call, or send a birthday card to her multiple nieces and nephews.

Norma was reunited with her husband after 25 years apart; her parents; brother, Bob Trammell; sister and brother-in-law, Wilma and Mike Duggar; sister-in-law, Delores Trammell; dozens of Replogle sisters- and brothers-in-law; and many beloved friends.

She leaves behind her daughter, Sherry Gallagher (Jerry) of Fort Worth, Texas, and son, Steve (Ruth Ann) Replogle of Hunter; brothers, Al Trammell of Rowlett, Texas, and Tom (Pam) Trammell of Ozark, Mo.; sisters-in-law, Gladys Trammell of Greenville, Texas, and JoAnn Dungan and Cleo McCullough, both of Enid; as well as a host of other relatives, cherished friends, and the wonderful caregivers at Hospice Circle of Love.
