

Olive Annie Humphrey

August 5, 1912 - October 29, 2016

The funeral service for Olive Humphrey, age 104, will be at 2:00 PM Thursday, November 3, 2016, at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel. Visitation with family will be Wednesday evening 6:00 to 7:30 PM at the funeral home. Burial will follow in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Olive was born to Peter and Minerva (Phillips) Dickman on August 5, 1912, in Enid, and passed away Saturday, October 29, 2016, in Enid.

In 1935, Olive married Christian P. Christiansen. He died in 1949, and she later married Louis R. Humphrey on September 6, 1955. Olive was a homemaker. She made an impact with her creative and caring nature by sewing quilts for the Red Cross and local care facilities, capturing history with her oil painting, making smiles with phone calls to those without companions, and volunteering everywhere she could. Olive was always spreading love to all she met in too many ways to list. Her motto was "God has a purpose for me and you." She was a member of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary, Grace Bible Church, and Cowboy Church of Enid. She enjoyed having company and lots of it!

She is survived by her grandchildren: Edgar Christiansen, Laron Leake, Eric Christiansen, Joyce (Leake) Tow, Teresa (Leake) Helm, Kenneth Leake, Allen Christiansen, and Jessalynn (Christiansen) Avants; 26 great-grandchildren; and 10 great, great-grandchildren.

Olive was preceded in death by her two husbands, Christian and Louis; siblings: Lester Dickman, Vance Dickman, Emma Fitzgerald, Cecil Dickman; and children, Dr. P.W. Christiansen, Christine Leake-Barwick, and Richard Christiansen.

Memorials may be made to NAMI Oklahoma, DAV, or VFW.
