“Pauline during the short time that we got to meet one another at greenbrier, you taught me a lot of things. You taught me to be patient and kind to all, regardless of circumstance. You taught me that there are things in life that you have no control over and how important it is to contribute to the changes you are able to make. As I have once told you, you and my daughter have the same exact birthday. And I pray that as she gets older, she contains just some of the qualities that you possessed. I am so grateful to have met and taken care of you in your final days. I told you all the time just how much you were my favorite. You will never know how much of an impact you made in my life and I am sorry that I never got to really let you know just how much. I just hope that amount was fully expressed in the care I given you at that time.”

“ I would like the Chapman family to know that both Pauline and Winnie meant alot to me as next door neighbors for many years to my mother, June Pierce, there on Nottingham until she sold her home and moved near my brother in Tulsa in December 2007. Every time I was home from Colorado to visit my mom, we would always walk next door to visit Pauline and Winnie. Pauline would always call me "Darlin"! I will always be able to hear her voice in my head and my heart. I believe the last time I saw Pauline and Winnie in person was September 2011, the last time that my mom and I took a trip together back to Enid to visit all her friends and former neighbors, but it meant alot to me to keep up with Pauline through Christmas cards, Christmas goodie packages, and an occasional phone call. It's interesting...the Lord prompted me three times recently about her over the past several months, and I tried calling but was not getting anyone at home. I wish I had gotten to hear her voice one last time, but I am joyful for her to know she has crossed over into her heavenly reward and has been reunited with Winnie and their son and daughter. Her joy is now complete in the presence of the Lord Jesus, our Savior, and her beloved family members who were there waiting for her. I hope she has found my mom and dad too, and I look forward to seeing them all again one day. I will always treasure that group of very special neighbors to my mom on Nottingham - the Chapmans and the Reinharts - who are all now on the other side or have moved near children to be cared for. May your family be blessed as you mourn Pauline's passing and celebrate her 95 years of living. She was a great lady!

“ Dear Grandma, I thought it might be easier when you passed, watching you suffer emotionally for Momma all these years, then Uncle Bill, and then Grandpa. It's not!!! I love you so very much with everything I have in me. There was never a day that we questioned your love for us. And I know there was never a day you questioned our love for you!! God truly has another angel again from my life!! We will all be together again some day. I rejoice for that day to come. I miss you, and will always cherish you and what you stood for. Give Momma, Uncle Bill, and Grandpa love from me!
