“ She was “Aunt Retha” to me from the first time Dennis introduced me to his “second mom.” She was feisty, sweet, funny, and loved adventures. I’m glad for all the visits and getting to participate in some of her adventures. I will certainly miss her and am comforted to know of her faith in Jesus.

One Sunday a few Months ago, as Retha and I did like every Sunday, hug each other and chat. She said, "Don't leave after Church! I've got something in my Car I want to give you." So after Church there she was sitting in front of the sound Booth with a bag. Retha then told me she loved Angels, and collected them. She said she had a special one she wanted me to have. I was so honored. I miss her so much! She was precious to me.

Retha was a very dear friend to the entire Meister family. She was special, loving, thoughtful and kind in so many ways. Throughout many years, she cared for so many of the family -all ages and she meant so much to each one who enjoyed her visits and kind acts of showing love. She had so many ways to express her affection and appreciation to those she loved. Her smile was so warm and sweet. You would think she never had a bad day. She was such an amazing child of God and lived for the day when she would see her Savior face to face. To have a Thanksgiving Homecoming was especially fitting for such a lovely lady as Retha. It is especially joyful to think of the reunion of family and friends she enjoyed that day. Her life was all about serving God by blessing others. Her life will live on in each of us because of sweet memories we hold in our hearts. We want to express our love and sympathy to all her family and pray God's comfort, love, hope and peace will fill your hearts in all the days ahead until you are all together again.
