“ I remember Christmas dinners at Grandma's and Grandpa's house. You had to be careful about sitting next to Uncle Richard or Uncle Alvin because they would keep piling on the food even if you weren't hungry anymore lol. Uncle Richard gave me a set of records that his children had loved when Stacy was born. He said he would still be singing the nursery rhymes on his way to work. Stacy wore those records out. Stacy was a flower girl at his and Ruth's wedding. It will be hard to think that the last of Mom's brothers is no longer with us. Rest in peace, Uncle Richard
