“ So sorry to the family of Ricky and especially to his sister, Dayon. We were all Arnett "kids" and grew up together ! Ricky was such a cute little boy and we all loved him even though he pestered us when we had overnight parties at the Sherrill farm! Prayers and Blessings, Carole (Howe) Courter.

“ Rick brought baskets full of joy and laughter to our lives. He displayed unconditional love. He reached out and touched us, reminding us often we were not forgotten. The Arnett High School Class of 1971 was enriched because of Rick's presence and personality.

I will miss Rick, his phone calls and his joy of life. Yet, I rejoice that he knew of God's great love for him in Jesus Christ, that he now rests in Him, and he now is relieved of pains, and sorrows, and suffering.

I pray God sends His holy angels to watch over Sheena and his family, His Holy Spirit into their hearts and souls to comfort them in their sadness, and His servants to walk with them in their time of sorrow.
