“ This man was a "Father" figure to both myself and my daughter over the years (ever since we first moved to Enid back in the '90's). He found us our first home that was rented by his boss (Jerry Janzen). He helped me get a new car back in the day that I still have (20 years old now). He taught my daughter how to drive. When we came back to Enid the 2nd time, he found a place for us to rent (that we still live in after 14 years). He built a place for Pugsley so he would be safe. He made sure our bank would let me transfer my account over from South Carolina to Enid when I was still in South Carolina. This wonderful man loved us and we loved him. I'm in shock that God took him on home so soon after we lost our biological Dad (Lenn Murray).. So, please keep the Murray family in your prayers as we once again have to say "Good bye" to another one of our Loved ones. AND.. Please keep his wife Rita Murray and her family in your prayers also.. Heaven is rejoicing right now as we feel the loss of this wonderful man..
