Roger Dale Kerstein

November 16, 1950 – October 25, 2025

Roger Dale Kerstein, 74, of Breckinridge, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 25, 2025, surrounded by his loving family, after a courageous battle with ALS.

Roger was born November 16, 1950, in Yuba City, California, to Robert Kerstein and Ruth Woods. He grew up primarily in California, working various jobs from a young age to help his mother provide for the family. Roger was a gifted athlete who excelled in all sports, especially track and field.

In 1969, Roger enlisted in the United States Army. While stationed in Germany, he received his draft notice and returned stateside before being deployed to Vietnam. He proudly served as an E-5 Buck Sergeant until his honorable discharge in 1972.

Following his military service, Roger returned to California, loaded everything he owned—including his faithful dog, Penny—into his station wagon, and headed to Oklahoma to begin a new chapter. He started his career with Fairchild Oilfield Service and later joined Shebester-Bechtel in Blackwell, Oklahoma, where he began as a rig hand and worked his way up to operator through dedication and hard work.

On October 2, 1981, Roger married the love of his life, Virginia, with whom he shared 45 wonderful years together and celebrated 44 years of marriage this year. In 1987, they moved their family to Garber, Oklahoma, where Roger began working for Wilcoxon and mastered the art of running downhole production tools on workover rigs. With the encouragement of his peers, Roger took a leap of faith and founded R&M Packer, Inc. in 1996. He poured his heart into building a business he was proud of—often putting in long hours to provide for his family.

Roger retired in 2015, settling at the lake with Virginia. Together, they enjoyed life to the fullest—spending time on their houseboat, fishing, traveling, and cherishing moments with their grandchildren. Their adventures took them to Alaska, Mexico, and across Europe, creating memories they would treasure forever.

Roger will be remembered as a hardworking man who took pride in everything he did, a devoted husband and father, and a loving grandfather who adored his family above all else.

“The Legend has Retired”

He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Ruth; his son, Christopher Kerstein; and his brother, Lee Schwartz.

“ Roger was truly one of a kind! He had a look that would make even the mouthiest child sit up straight, but a heart as big as the sky! He was mischievous, and yet one of the funniest men I've ever known. He was full of knowledge and stories of his past. He was an awesome dad to all of his kids and a loving husband and grandpa. He will definitely be missed! My love to the family.
