“ I am sorry to hear about Roland’s passing. Roland was my manager at Burger King years ago in Franklin, MA. Roland wasn’t always the easiest manager, but as an adult, I will always appreciate the lessons he taught us about work ethic. One of my favorite memories of Roland was how much he loved the holidays. He would decorate the restaurant and bring in gifts to put under the tree that were donated to kids in need. It was so wonderful to see how much he enjoyed the spirit of giving. It’s been close to 15 years since I last worked with Roland, but I’ve never forgotten his generosity and work ethic. Rest In Peace Roland, and I’m sorry to his family for this tremendous loss .
