

Ronald Alfred Taylor

May 24, 1935 - January 15, 2021

Celebration of life service for Ronald Alfred Taylor, 85, of Enid, will be 11:00 AM, Tuesday, January 19, 2021 at Anderson-Burris Funeral Home with Dr. James Taylor, Pastor Dan Barrick and Chaplain Drew Drawbridge officiating. Burial will follow in Memorial Park Cemetery. Visitation for family and friends will be Monday evening 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM at Anderson-Burris Funeral Home.

Ron was born May 24, 1935 in Big Stick, West Virginia to James Alfred and Vestine (Word) Taylor and passed away at his home in Enid on January 15, 2021.

Ron graduated from Straton High School, and then he served in the United States Air Force. On June 3, 1955 Ron married the love of his life Shirley McCray in Charleston, South Carolina. Ron worked at Vance Air Force Base with the flight simulator division before his retirement. He was a member of Enid First Assembly of God Church.

Ron is survived by his wife Shirley; son Dr. James Taylor of Norman; daughter Sharon Miner of Amarillo; 12 grandchildren; and his sister Cleo Taylor.

Ron was preceded in death by his parents and two sons Ronald Alfred Taylor, Jr., and Jack Dewayne Taylor.

Memorials may be made through Anderson-Burris to Elara Hospice or Comfort Keepers.

“ I'm so sorry to learn about the passing of Ron. I won't ever forget what a kind man he was. Shirley, you & Ron made such an impact on me when you came to Highland Park Nursing Home to sing to the residents and spread your love for the Lord. Not many that came to the nursing home went around the room to interact in some way with the residents, but you both did. My husband Jerry was a resident there, he always loved the music, even if it seemed he wasn't paying attention. He always extended his hand to Ron, when he saw Ron's hand extended to him, it was not a common thing for Jerry to do.

My thoughts and prayers are with you & your family. God Bless you all!

“ Ron and Shirley were a part of my life for 15 years. He cherished his family and he loved the Lord. Ron was a towering man with a great presence, and yet he had such a gentle spirit. But what I remember most about Ron was his laugh. He had the most contagious laugh! Ron, you touched so many lives, and I know the Lord has said, “Well done, good and faithful servant.” Love you Dad.

“ I never missed a chance to holler at Ron in whatever parking lot I would meet him and his wife in. He was one person I enjoyed saying "he is my friend". I know that he will be welcomed at the heavenly table.

“ While it is hard to settle into a world without my sweet Mr. Taylor, I have to rejoice at the thought of him joining in the banquet that has been set for him surrounded by all the people he loved that went before him, I see Al on one side and Jack on the other and my own Mom and Dad among the throng of people who welcomed him into the kingdom. My prayer for Mrs. Taylor, James, Sharon and all who loved Ron is that God will give them a glimpse of the joy that must surely permeate his very being right now as he is brought into even closer companionship with his Lord and savior.

*My love to you all,
