

Sammie Joyce Murray

October 11, 1938 - February 19, 2014

Funeral service for Sammie Joyce Murray, age 75 of Enid, will be 10:00 AM, Monday, February 24, 2014 at First Assembly of God Church with Rev. Dan Barrick and Rev. Jarrod Cloud officiating. Burial will follow in Memorial Park Cemetery. Visitation with the family will be Sunday 4:00 to 5:00 pm at Anderson-Burris Funeral Home. Sammie was born to Horace and Betty (Boaz) Fennell on October 11, 1938, in Lawton, and passed away on Wednesday, February 19, 2014 in Enid. Sammie grew up in southwest Oklahoma and northern Texas, and graduated Andrews High School. She moved to Enid and married Sam Barnes, and they had 3 children. On December 31, 1985 she married Bernard Murray in Enid. They made their home in Woodward, Mooreland, and later in Enid. Sammie was a member of First Assembly of God Church, where she enjoyed singing. She worked as a secretary in State Farms Claims and as an event coordinator at Northwest Inn in Woodward. Sammie is survived by her husband Bernard, two children Marty Barnes (Becky) of Yukon, and Joni Johnson (Del) of Oologah; 6 grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; and a sister Wanda Edwards of Owasso; and other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, her son Brad on September 5, 2003, sister Darlene Pecikonis, stepsons Sheldon and Lyle Murray. Memorial to OMRF-Stroke Division.