“ Sandi has been my best friend for over 30 years. Rest in peace Sandi and rejoice in heaven. We shared many adventures, laughs, secrets and burdens. You will live in my heart forever. You lived your life loving everyone and always was there to help anyone. Your life is the embodiment of how Christians should live here on earth. My life has been blessed by you and is better because of you. Your love, unselfishness, giving and support knew no boundaries, not only for me but for anyone whose life you touched. I selfishly miss you so much but I know in my heart that we will meet again in heaven. Rejoice, sing and dance in heaven until we meet again. Fred and I love you and send our love to you in heaven.

“ I met Sandi about 30 years ago, after my husband died. We were in a social club together but had not formally met. Sandi began to pray for me and I began to pray for her although we didn't really know one another. After a few months we formally met and were both surprised to realize we had each others names wrong. Once we began to get to know one another, we hit it off and became very close friends. We would meet half way between Oklahoma City and Enid for lunch every once in a while. Sandi was a blessing for me and I was very sorry to hear of her passing. She will be missed.
