“ I'm sorry for the loss of my friend of fifty years! We had so many special times together, traveling to Montana, living next door to one another, weddings and birth's of our children, funerals of family, Red River, NM & Colorado camping trips, playing cards & just sitting out on the driveway at night & looking at the stars. Sharon & I shared ALL of our secrets, dreams & hopes together & were always there for one another. I will miss her so very much! She dearly LOVED her family & Patrick & I pray for each of you. You all are in our hearts.

“ I hav known Sharon for many years and I don't even remember how we met. But Sharon did not know a stranger and if she met you, you were a friend for life and there was nothing she would not do for you if you needed something. She will be missed.
