“ Way back when, I remember Sharon at SE High School, wearing her golden Tam for the Pep Squad and she supported me in my quest for her brother as a boy friend. After we married we traveled to see Sharon, Dale and newborn Wade. I now look on that as very selfish and silly--a new mother doesn't need company!! But what can I say. I have learned a lot. I remember Thanksgiving and Sharon's graciousness as a hostess, welcoming us five from Kentucky. She wasn't even upset when I said I had no idea how to cook the Kentucky Ham we had brought with us!

The gatherings at Hollister were always fun and a great introduction to Branson and to family members we rarely got/get to see. Sharon welcomed us to her spacious, lovely home in the ozarks and the water -hose playing the children to part in on the back space didn't faze her at all. Good memories!

More recently the welcome Fred and I received when we brought the Abernathy Boys Program to Covenant Church was open, friendly and appreciative. Believe me, we were very appreciative.

I felt for Sharon as she dealt with Margaret's passing as well as dealing with the attorneys. It looked to me like a very big task that she undertook with aplomb and ease.

I am happy I called way back in April and got to talk with her a bit.

My thoughts are with Dale, Wade and family, and Michelle and family, for that empty place at the table will be difficult especially at holidays and everyday. That supportive smile/arm/hug will need to come from each of you to the other as you share the stories Sharon has left with you. Tell those stories often and let each one of you share, so all the stories will be with each of you from all points of view.

My prayers go to each of you for strength and rejoicing for the life of your mother.

“ Sharon was the most amazing woman. Her caring & compassion she had is unbeatable, there was never a day she wasn't more concerned about other people than what may be going on in her own life. Sharon was so supportive of everyone she knew. The store was a place that you always felt like family whether you were an employee or customer. This world will seem so much emptier without her but heaven is so blessed to have her. She has received her final reward, but will be greatly missed by anyone that had ever met her. My heart goes out to Dale, Wade, Michelle, her 6 wonderful grandchildren, the many family members, & the many friends she made wherever she went. Sharon & Dale had a huge impact on my life that will not ever be forgotten. My love & prayers for all of you as you travel this journey, till you meet again. May God Bless & comfort you with everlasting peace.
