“ Dear Barbara, We are so sorry about Sherri's death. It leaves you without both of your daughters and your husband - plus your grandchildren are so far away. To us, it seems like we are almost family. You are so welcome to drive out and vist us anytime. Our love and sympathy are with you, Babarba. Glade and Arlyn Schmidt and family

“ My condolences to Barbara and family at the loss of Miss Sherri. She has been missed a lot by her co-workers at Atwoods since her retirement. I will truly miss her because I was her assistant and "her legs" up and down the stairs at work . She was a very helpful person. Very thoughtful of others in many ways over the years. She will always be remembered kindly by those who knew her and loved her. I "knew" Sherri before I ever knew Sherri, from knowing her parents at the greenhouse. My thoughts are with the family. Gary (Miss Sherri's secretary) Morris Although she tried, she never could get me to wear a French maid outfit and spiked heels!
