“ I was heartbroken to hear of Shawna's passing, but know our God and Savior has her in his care now. In heaven, she is rejoicing and free of pain. I was blessed to have the opportunity to get to know Shawna while we were both taking treatments at Dexeus Oncology. She had a wonderful personality and a sweet smile. We'd sit together many times while taking treatments and visit about many things. We were in this cancer fight together and knew God would take care of us. She became a good friend and I enjoyed her company. I miss visiting with her. I know she loved her family very much and talked about all of you often. I pray that God will keep you in his care and may all your many sweet memories of her bring a smile to your heart.

With Love and Prayers, Helen George

“ My Oklahoma Sister-in-Law, what can I say !! My deceased sister and Shawna's sister-in-law Karen and I always said Shawna was the best thing that ever happened to our brother Robbie. She was a calming and steady influence on Robbie and from what I seen, a great mother. When Rob was murdered in 2012, she was so thoughtful and caring when her "Michigan" family came to Oklahoma for Rob's funeral. Since Rob's death she was ever so graceful with Derek and her girls, Nicole and Sarah. We had several deep discussions about family, especially the last 4-5 months, since she knew she was dying. I promised her some things about my nephew and nieces and she told what what she wanted for them. Her and I would also talk about our Lord, Jesus, as our views pretty much lined up over the years where sometimes Robbie had a "Different" view, lol. I will miss you Shawna Renee, and I will keep my promisses with the kid's

“ Miss Shawna was my grandson Carson Fletchall's all time favorite Para and such a wonderful person. She was his Para for about 10 years starting at age 3. Such a loving, patient and caring lady. Shawna helped Carson grow into a wonderful young man. She always hugged him when we would see her. She will be missed so much by many.
Praying for her family, friends, co workers and students. R.I.P. Miss Shawna 🥹🙏❤️
