“ I have so many beautiful memories of my Aunt Shirley, and I will miss chatting with her and texting with her frequently. I know she is now with my Uncle Johnnie and the rest of our deceased family members..... that should give us all comfort and the hope that we will all be together again.

The Switzer Family (Louisville, Kentucky) is having a Memorial Mass said in her honor. I will send you the Mass card with the information.

Our love to the family... our condolences to you all..... you remain in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Charlotte, Paula and Michele,

So many wonderful years of memories and love that you all have to cherish, but Moms are precious and I know the farewell here on earth is hard. May God's amazing grace and peace be yours during this time as you celebrate her life. What joyful reunions were awaiting Aunt Shirley as she entered Heaven's gates and Gods presence... ❤️ Our love and prayers are with you.
