“ Aunt Shirley, was truly one of the sweetest person I have known, always smiling, even through the hardships. She loved all of her family, both immediate and extended. Her presence in a room was a blessing!! I remember many harvests where she would come out the field, just to visit and see how it was going....because she cared, and wanted to see the combines rolling. Dad and Shirley cared deeply for each other, it was special to watch them interact. I will miss you sweet lady, enjoy the card games in heaven!! Steve Campbell

“ Shirley was a friend and a great teacher, I worked and learned from her at Janzen Olds, GMC, in Enid Ok. Not only did I learn from her I learned that hard times are a way to excel in yourself and carry on. I am now a Controller at Phil Long Ford Lincoln in Colorado Springs, Co, I believe that what I learned from Shirley is how I achieved so many things in my life. Love you Shirley Andy and Linda Ciarla
