A Celebration of Life Service for Sylvia Ann Ross, 57 of Enid, will be 11:00 AM Friday, February 28, 2025 at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Larry Featherstone officiating. Burial will follow in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Sylvia Ann Ross was the first born to the proud parents of Herbert K. Ross and Ann B. Wilson Ross, on October 5, 1967, in Lakenheath, England. Her father and a brother Kenneth R. Ross preceded her in death. She accepted Christ at an early age.

Her family moved from England, to Arkansas, and settled in Enid, Oklahoma.

Sylvia loved and cared for her family, and her friends. She enjoyed shopping, decorating and fashions. She possessed a captivating sense of style. She had a passion for long hair. It was part of who she was. She always loved a "flowing mane".

She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter Tyleshia Prince, Enid; her mother Annie Ross, Enid; her sister Myra Lear, California; an aunt Dorothy Pitts, Missouri; a nephew, Tory Merz, Enid; and a host of cousins and friends.

I am so glad that in our lives we shared our togetherness. As my cousin's bestest friend. And a true friend to me. As I never choose friends you choose me. No matter the distance of time. God has rested your soul. Love ya Sylvia.
