“ Dear Aunt Thelma,
You will be dearly missed. It was so nice taking you to lunch those several times and coming to visit you at your house in Edmond. I will miss sharing conversation with you. I will also miss the recipes, meals and advice and encouragement that you so freely gave to me. Thanks too for always offering your house to family when we had Enid gatherings. Thanks as well for checking in on the grandparents when they were living. I would have attended your funeral, but was not told of your passing. I only learned from your obituary that Patrick found on-line yesterday. I pray that your family finds the Peace that is needed. It's been a difficult few years for your loved ones with all of the losses. Share kisses and hugs with everyone for me and tell them that God willing, I will see you all in Heaven when my time here on Earth is finished.
With Much Love, Debbie & Patrick, OKC, OK.
