November 22, 1928 - April 16, 2013

The funeral service for Velma Mae Karr, age 84, will be at 2:00 PM Friday, April 19, 2013, at Anderson-Burriss Funeral Home Chapel, with Rev. Jarrod Cloud officiating. Burial will follow in the Waukomis Cemetery. Velma was born November 22, 1928, the daughter of William B. and Virginia M. (Garrett) Sanders in Bryant, Oklahoma. She attended grade school and high school in this small community. On December 18, 1944, she married Tine Woodrow Karr. Being a military wife, they made their home in Albuquerque, New Mexico and were lucky not to have traveled or moved too many times. They were stationed in the Philippine Islands from 1956 to 1958, when the death of her father brought them home. After returning home, they were stationed in Alamogordo, New Mexico, where her husband retired. In 1964 they moved to Waukomis where her husband worked for Vance. She attended First Assembly of God Church. Velma enjoyed league bowling attending many tournaments, golfing in the summer, and watching her grandchildren grow. After the passing of her husband, she worked briefly for Enid State School as a nurse's aide. In her later years, she loved music and singing the old songs of her day. Velma is survived by her daughter JoAnn Hromas and husband James of Waukomis; two sons, Jack Karr and wife Vicki of Frisco, Texas, and John Karr and wife Lynda of Altus; six grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, sister, and brother. Memorials may be made to First Assembly of God – Peru Missions.
