“ One of my fondest memories occurred when Carolyn was a baby. We were at Uncle Roy's and Carolyn was crying and hungry. I was maybe 8 or 9 and I asked Cisi if I could feed Carolyn. She was gentle with me and said no. I asked again telling her I would be real careful. She laughed a bit and then replied, "Sorry, you don't have the right equipment!" I absolutely loved this women and have admired her forever! She had a beautiful light that shown for all to see! She spoke her mind very clear and very quick! But she was a straight shooter and loved life! She gave a good fight to conquering her cancer but sadly lost. However, now she is free from pain and having a great time in heaven with Mona, Uncle Jim, Aunt Bobbie, my sister, Karen, my dad, and the rest of the Bateman brothers & sisters! I can just hear her laughing!!! I will miss you, my beautiful cousin, and so glad that we were related!!! Love you always!!
