“ My Uncle Bill.....he was a very charming, tall and handsome man ! Always had a story or a joke. An avid fisherman, he was the fisherman who had tall fishing tales ! He was completely dedicated to family

Especially to my dad, his younger brother. When my dad retired early due to health reasons, Uncle Bill came to see him almost everyday. If only to chat, have a cup of coffee, and a smoke. They sat in my dad's workshop, and solved all of the world's problems together ! 😊 Whatever one of them needed, the other was there! Men like them, were a product of a generation that raised men of great substance. Hard working and responsible in all things. From a "mold" rarely seen in younger generations.

There isn't much I truly know, but of this I am certain....my dad and my uncle, are sitting beside each other at heavens most beautiful fishing pond ! Their poles in the water, reminiscing about only the best of memories !

I strive every day to do my best. So that one day I may be blessed enough to join them both there, where the wait with other family members...so that we all will be together for eternity❤️ Kathy Case-Gault
