“ My name is Sue Day. Wilma was a very good friend of my mom, Elsie Ports. After mom died I lost contact with Wilma. I am so sorry to hear of her death. I would love to talk to any family members to hear of her last days. She and mom and a couple of other ladies attended Davis Park Christian Church for years. I would take mom to meet them at Braums to catch up after they had all quit going or retired. Wilma was a lovely and happy lady. I enjoyed my time with these sweethearts! Many condolences!

“ We were so sad to hear of Wilma's passing. While our contact with Wilma had diminished over the past number of years, we were thrilled to have heard from her again recently. Her last letter was upbeat and positive, just as she always was. Wilma held a special place in our hearts as we will be forever grateful to her for all of her assistance with Ron's mother, Rebecca, during her last several years. Wilma took it upon herself to become our surrogate with Rebecca as we were two hours away from Enid in Wichita. Wilma checked on Rebecca several times a week, made sure she had everything she needed, even making purchases when needed and when Wilma didn't think Rebecca was being cared for properly, was quick to notify us and help to remedy the situation. She even took Rebecca to doctor appointments and would phone to discuss at length the nature of each visit. And, when Rebecca's sister, Irene, was admitted to the nursing home, Wilma voluntarily provided the same care for her. Wilma considered Rebecca and Irene more than just distant relatives and we felt the same way about her. Wilma gave us great peace of mind during this time and we loved her like a sister. And, of course, Wilma did this because of the kind and caring person she was. We were greatly blessed to know Wilma. Undoubtedly, Wilma is now being rewarded for her caring and generous life. And, we will continue here with the memory of her example to guide us in the way we should serve each other. Love and blessings to each of you.

Sincerely,
